Malaria Deaths in Africa: 2000-2014
Insight 1

Summary

By hovering over the dashboard and selecting the entire African countries in the dashboard, the total sum of average death caused by malaria across the countries was 133,981 persons. Around the center of the continents, darker shades are noticed inferring high death rates in Democratic Republic of Congo, Angola, Tanzania and Kenya, These 4 countries had a sum of average death of 65,769 persons accommodating almost 50% of the total average death in the continent

Insight 2

Summary

Kenya had the darkest colour tone in the visual followed by the Democratic Republic of Congo indicating high average death rate caused by malaria over the years. Kenya and Democratic Republic of Congo has an average annual death rate of 27,896 and 15,203 persons respectively as revealed from the dashboard.
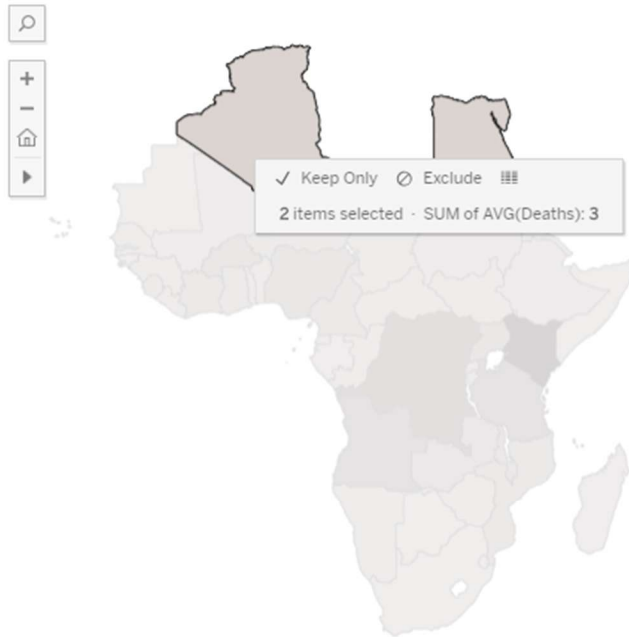

Insight 3

Summary

From the dashboard Egypt and Algeria had the lightest colour tone with a total average death of 3 persons indicating a low death rate in these countries.

Which countries are most affected?

How have the number of malaria deaths changed over time in Algeria & Egypt?

✓ Keep Only ⊘ Exclude ⊞

2 items selected · SUM of AVG(Deaths): 3

Darker shading marks a higher number of deaths caused by Malaria. Select a country on the map to explore how the number of malaria deaths have changed over time.

Show Africa Average Line
Yes

Africa Average
Country Average